

PROCESSES

To start the project, it is necessary to comply with the following points:

- a) Previous meetings with the client either face-to-face or online in order to know their needs to detail.
- b) Payment of the corresponding advance.
- c) Timeline, reviewed and approved by the client.

VALIDITY

-This budget is valid for one month. After this period, you must go back to quoting due to the nature of our calendar.

PAYMENTS

-To start the project it is necessary to have the deposit of the advance, being able paid in the following term:

- 50% advance, 50% after the delivery of the branding in this proposal.
- The agreed amount must be paid once the design stage has been completed, regardless of having requested production of the applications.

OTHERS

- In case of not receiving feedback of a delivery in a maximum period of 15 days West of Death reserves the right to move to the next phases before continuing with the draft. Similarly, in case of requiring changes in a phase previously authorized by the client, or requested actions outside of this service proposal, this will incur an extra cost.
- In case there is this interruption in the project calendar, West of Death can not guarantee resuming the project immediately and will have to assess the workload at the time, West of Death, with the client, will set a new calendar to have the least affect on the delay of the project.
- Does not include photography or retouching of it, unless option is selected and added.
- Does not include printing and / or production costs. If you require third-party services like screen printing, manufacturing and production of samples or tests, etc.- these will be budgeted, billed and charged directly by the providers of said services, previously selected, with payment deadlines set by them.
- West of Death is also not responsible for third-party delivery times for production work like printers, manufacturing, products, etc.
- If the design proposals incur several rounds of changes or adjustments, it will be necessary to talk with the client, review the calendar and / or the quotation of this stage of the project.
- In case of lack of timely payment of any amount that must be paid by the client,
- In accordance with the present proposal, West of Death will suspend all activity, until the client performs the corresponding payment.

Prices in USD.

